You're Looking For The Right Partner. We're Looking For The Right Client. Five Reasons Why We Should Hook Up.

-  Committed. Not like the Fatal Attraction type. When we bounce ideas off of each other, great things happen. It's magical... And we work to keep that magic alive for the long haul.
-  Honest. Sometimes we're asked to do very bad things. Fortunately, our parents raised us right. We don't engage in spamming or deceptive practices. Please don't ask us to do something that would make us feel uncomfortable.
-  Attentive. We're not mind readers. We listen very carefully to what you have to say so that we fully understand what you want to accomplish. Really, we do.
-  Patient. Like a fine wine, great things take time. Successful online marketing campaigns need to evolve and mature. We won't cut and run.
-  Prepared. You have a budget and a plan (right???). We're not expecting the world or diamonds, however we do look for clients that understand the importance of budgeting and planning appropriately. You get what you pay for. We feel we're worth every penny. So will you.
